

The Boston Experience!
aka
“The Boston Seminar”
Aug. 4-8, 2024
Boston, MA

The NACCC cordially invites you to participate in our upcoming event in Boston, where you can share your personal history, ministry pathway, and experiences. If you are new to NACCC, have not taken a History and Polity course, or have never attended a previous Boston Seminar event, we encourage you to join us. You will be able to learn about 400 years of Congregationalism in a 3-and-a-half-day immersion program alongside other ministers with similar experience levels. During the event, you will get to explore the historic Faneuil Hall and walk through American religious history in old Boston.

Speakers include:

Margaret Bendroth is a historian, writer, and the former executive director of Congregational Library.

Tricia Peone is a Salem History specialist and staff historian at Congregational Library.

Norm Erlendson is a NACCC historian, Lay Ministry Training Program Instructor, and long-time instructor at the Boston Seminar.

Ashley Cleere, the executive director of NACCC, grew up on Plimoth Plantation.

We will embark on a journey together where we will:

1. Experience the lives of early Congregationalists by putting ourselves in their shoes.
2. Visit some of the historic Congregational Churches.
3. Witness the one-of-a-kind treasures of the Congregational Library and Archive.
4. Explore the beautiful city of Boston.
5. Go to the Plimoth Patuxet Museums.
6. And much more.
