

PRIME MINISTER • PREMIER MINISTRE

I would like to convey my warmest greetings to everyone marking Usher Syndrome Awareness Day in Canada.

Usher Syndrome Awareness Day provides an opportunity to raise public awareness of Usher Syndrome. I am certain that everyone participating in today's event will appreciate the opportunity to learn more about the condition and how they can support those affected by it.

I would like to commend the Usher Syndrome Coalition for their commitment to accelerating research and improving the quality of life of individuals living with Usher Syndrome.

I wish you all an memorable experience.
